

We are pleased to have this opportunity to assist you in your 2011 income tax return preparation. This letter will confirm the understanding between you and Shaw & Associates, CPA, PC concerning tax services we will provide. We will prepare the 2011 federal and state income tax returns from information you provide to us. We will not audit or verify the information you submit, although we may ask you to clarify it. We are responsible only for preparation of the income tax returns.

It is our understanding that all of the information submitted to us for the purpose of tax return preparation is true, correct and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief and that you have the necessary written support for that information. By your signature below, you are confirming to us that unless we are otherwise advised, your travel, entertainment, gifts, and related expenses are supported by the necessary records required under the Internal Revenue Code. You are also confirming that you have receipts for all single donations, which are greater than $250. As a last item, you are confirming that your business use of mixed-use property, such as computers and vehicles, is substantiated by a log of such use as to preclude the deduction of any personal expenses, which may be related to such property. If you have any questions as to the type of records required, please ask us for advice in that regard.

You should note that in order to complete appropriate tax planning work on your return, we require that all information be provided to us no later than March 23, 2012. If we do not have all the information needed to complete your return by this date, it will most likely be necessary to file an application for an extension. This may require a tax payment made by you by April 16, 2012, in an amount approximating your unpaid tax liability. The exact amount may differ upon receipt of any subsequent information necessary to complete the return. You assume responsibility for any differences in tax, including any penalties and interest, arising out of the subsequently received information. Upon completion and receipt of the tax returns, you will be responsible for the timely filing of said returns.

We will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where the tax law is unclear or where there are conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretation of the law and what seem to be other supportable filing positions. Your return is subject to review by taxing authorities. Any items resolved against you by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of an examination, we will be available to represent you at our normal billing rates. The IRS allows tax preparers to communicate with them on behalf of their clients by indicating so on the face of the tax return. Unless instructed by you otherwise, we will answer affirmative to the question that allows us to communicate on your behalf to the IRS.

We encourage you to advise us in advance of any major transactions you propose to undertake in order that we may provide the greatest assistance in minimizing income tax burdens. For example, because tax rules change constantly, an earlier opinion expressed in connection with a transaction may not apply to one occurring at a later date. Therefore a fresh review of the tax consequences may be appropriate to obtain desired results.

Fees for our services will be based principally upon the amount of time required to prepare your returns, at our normal billing rate, plus any out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices will be due and payable upon presentation.
